BIG OPENING IN GRIDIRON SHOW

Three Initial Contests Slated For Salt Lake, Logan and Ogden.

VS. POCATELLO HERE.

Boys From North are Whales-High School Meets Aggies-Ogden Tackles Alumni.

The big opening in fall football offerings is scheduled for tomorrow and Utah will be the battle-grounds for three contests. These are: University of Utah vs Pocatello Ath-letic club, Cummings field, city. Sait Lake High School vs Agricultural Colleg, at Logan. Ogden High School vs Alumni, at Glenwood Park, Ogden.

Undoubtedly the biggest battle and most important will be that between the U. eleven and the Pocatello club. The U. bunch is the one which represents Utah in foreign fields so the gridfron followers are anxious to see what sort of a team is to carry the U. over the line this year.

In tomorrow's game it will be learned.

team is to carry the U. over the line this year.

In tomorrow's game it will be learned if science and speed can win out over beef and science. The Pocatello bunch consists of men who are glants alongside the Utah boys, but the U. team is going to go in for victory and some battle should be expected. The rainfall of the last day or so has shut off practise, but the time was utilized for making physical tests and indoor limbering stunts. All members of the squad passed high tests physically.

Pocatello arrives in this city this evening and will be the guests of Utah during the visit here.

The contest betwen the Salt Lake High School and Aggles in Logan will show what is to be expected from the locals during the early season. The bunch that leaves for Logan at 4 o'clock this afternoon includes many husky youngsters whose faces are new in the line-up. Here are some of the men who will have a hand in trying out with the Aggles:

Center, Leaver, Tracy; guards, Bardwell, Martineau and Jones; tackles, Yates, Korns and Kirby; ends, Gallagher,

New York, Sept. 24.—After an exceptionally nerve-tingling two days for the baseball enthusiasts the New York-Chicago series in the National league ended today in a 5 to 4 victory for the home team. The game kept the immense crowd at a high pitch of excitement and there were demonstrations notable even for such an exceptional string of contests as New York has been witnessing the past fornight. These was no doubt of earnestness on both sides. At the opening New York put Wiltse and Bresnahan in the points and Chicago Brown and Kling. New York socied promptly in the first. Tenney on a double by Donlin and Herzog on a hit infield single by Seymour. In the fifth they took their other three, Tenney and Bresnahan on a three-baser by Donlin and Devlin on a sacrifice. Chicago bunched its four in the seventh. A single by Tinker scored Steinfold and a three-bagger by Kling brought in Hoffman and Howard, batting for Coakley, who had replaced Brown brought in Kling.

OBJECT TO ROAD RACE.

Douglas, Isle of Man, Sept. 24 .- The automobile race arranged under the auspices of the Royal Automobile club was started here this morning. The course is 37½ miles long and exceedingly dangerous, and was covered nine times, giving a total distance of 37½ miles. Thirty-live cars got away at intervals of a half minute.

The winning car covered the entire dis-tance in 6 hours 43 minutes and 5 sectance in 6 hours 43 minutes and a seconds.

Several cars were overturned or suscained buckled wheels and broken axles, but with the exception of the case of a single mechanic no requisition was made for the services of the ambulance corps.

This contest will probably be the last to be run on the public highways in Great Britain, as opposition to it on the part of the public has been strong.

MILLIONAIRE AND O'BRIEN ROUGH

Philadelphia Aristocrat Hands Former Middle Weight Champion Some Hard Jolts.

HONORS DIVIDED EVENLY.

A. J. Drexel Biddle Gets Another Whack at Professional Pug and Holds His Own.

A. J. Drexel Biddle, the Philadelphia millionaire, with a penchant for donning the mitts with a real pug and fast ones in a wallopfest, has been at it again. And staid old Philadelphia was the scene of the go. The other man was Jack O'Brien-Yes, the real, genuine, notor-er-famous "Phnageipma" Jack O-Brien. O'Brien is former middleweight chainplon of the word. He is training to meet Langford, who has the chainpoismp bug himself. What other milhonaite society man would go at it rough with such men as these? A. J. Drekel Hiddle of the aristocratic Biddles of rinhadelphia would or could give and take with a big professional fighter? Biddle can wear a dress suit, with sash, gioves to match, and the most proper of proper linen and apparei throughout on a Monday afternoon and in the evening he will be equally at home in a pair of gym shoes, trunks and 4-ounce gloves. One hour in the clegant ball room and the next a fight ring, Biddle is, pernaps, the most unique character in social and puglistic circles in the world. Brien. O'Brien is former middleweight dle is, pernaps, the most unique character in social and puglistic circles in the world.

His most recent appearance in abbreviated costume and roped square was Thursday night's four-round battle between Biddle and "Philadelphia" Jack O'Brien. Langford, the big, burly negro, who is threatening to bump several heavyweight fighters before convinced that Burns will retain the championship or that Jeffries will come back into the game if there is a danger of the belt going to a negro, has been signed up to meet O'Brien in a six-round bout. O'Brien has been training for this and is in the pink of condition. So when A. J. Drexèl Biddle, aristocrat, society man and fight-lover pestered him for a match O'Brien at last consented. This match was to be a return scrap for a licking administered to Biddle last winter by O'Brien before the Marion Cricket club. The bout was arranged for Thursday evening and a very few intimate friends of each man, several seconds, trainers and ring officials gathered quietly in a evening and a very few intimate friends of each man, several seconds, trainers and ring officials gathered quietly in a west Walnut street gymniasum. From Philadelphia, comes the word that the four rounds were the fiercest ever seen by the few around the ringside, and cvery man present is a regular fight follower. It was a toss up as to who got best or the worst of the battle. O'Brien had Biddle's mouth and nose bleeding and his eyes closed but the professional pug was yielding gore freely from the nose; his lips were purfed up, and his ribs were red and raw from a tattoo administered by the aristocratboxer. The Biddle family is up in the air over A. J.'s eccentric ways, but A. J. goes right ahead walloping the best and bigest men in the ring.

"BELFAST SPIDER" DEAD. Somerville, Mass., Sept. 24.—Isaac Weir, who as "Ike Weir," the Belfast spider, won the featherweight boxing championship of the world 20 years ago, died today at his home in this city after an illness of nearly three years. He leaves a widow

STUDENTS VS. ALUMNI.

Cleveland, Sept. 24.—Washington broke Cleveland's winning streak today, taking the game by the score of 2 to 1. Washington got its first run on Clymer's pass and hits by Pickering and Freeman. Its second run was gained on McBride's hit, a passed ball and Milan's scratch hit Cleveland, got its only run on Lajoie's double and singles by Bemis and Birmingham. After the second not a Cleveland player reached first base. Johnson struck out nine, Bradley was put out of the game in the sixth for disputing a called third strike. This necessitated a patched-up infield the last three innings. McBride's work at short featured the contest. Twice he jumped into the air to grab with one hand the line drives hit by Goode.

LILLIAN R'S DEBUT JARS THE WISE ONES.

Lillian R. won the first heat in rather easy style from Margaret O., which was so full of race in the second heat that she crowded the Cleveland mare all the way, being separately timed in 2:05 flat. Lillian R. was somewhat weary in the third mile and Early Altee, given a vigorous drive, won the heat from her.

TENEYCK, JR., CHARGED WITH FLEECING RUBE.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 24.—James E. Teneyck, Jr., stroke of Syracuse university eight oared crew, which won the regatta on the Hudson this year, was arrested here today on a warrant sworn out by the police of Salem, Mass., charging him with grand larceny. It is alleged by the complainant, Stephen Gauss, that on Aug. 11 he and Teneyck met in a poolroom here and engaged to play for money, with the result that Teneyck won from him $1.600. Gauss, who at the time was employed in a Salem bank, asserts that Teneyck won by fraud.

VAN CLEAVE REPLIES TO GOMPERS' STATEMENT.

Washington, Sept. 24.—James W. Van Cleave, president of the National Asso-ciation of Manufacturers, who came here today to have a conference with Daniel Davenport and James N. Baker. Daniel Davenport and James N. Baker, counsel for the Buck Stove and Range company of St. Louis, late tonight gave out a statement in reply to Samuel Gompers in the contempt case, which has been on hearing here for several weeks. Mr. Van Cleave said:

"I have never employed detectives or intermediaries to shadow Mr. Gampers or any other official of the American Federation of Labor. Neither have I ever offered him a bribe of any kind, nor have I ever had any connection with the men he claims that shadowed him and offered him a bribe. shadowed him and offered him a bribe.

He seems to be trying to make a cheap martyr of himself. I never have and never will employ any methods that are not straight, square and above board in my dealings with organized labor. I make this statement without equivocation." Every reference made therein to me
